KING EDWARD VII'S HOSPITAL FOR OFFICERS

Sister Agnes, Founder Beaumont House, Beaumont Street, W.1

This Hospital, founded by Sister Agnes (Miss Agnes Keyser) in 1899 in her own house, 17 Grosvenor Crescent, was destroyed by enemy action in January 1941, and the present building, Beaumont House, Beaumont Street, London, W.1, was opened in October 1948, by Her Majesty Queen Mary.

All officers of the three services, serving and retired, who have held regular or temporary commissions, as well as their wives and widows, are eligible for admission, whether or not they subscribe. Sister Agnes's is run for their benefit, and all subscriptions, donations and covenants enable this object to be attained. The Hospital has both private rooms and small wards.

The Council has as its object the provision of the best medical and surgical facilities at the lowest possible cost. Serving officers are entitled to free nursing and maintenance in the shared rooms. Otherwise, patients are asked to pay at the rate of 25 guineas per week for a private room and 15 guineas per week for a shared room or ward bed. If, however, either through insurance or because he can afford it, a patient can pay a sum nearer to the actual cost to the hospital of his maintenance this is much appreciated. The ability of the patient to pay is always considered and there is a generously administered Samaritan Fund for those in straitened circumstances.

The Hospital is for surgical and medical cases, and has its own Resident Medical Officer, X-ray and Physiotherapy Departments.

The Hospital has its own Consultant Staff, whose fees are in accordance with the patient's means, on a scale approved by the Council. It is necessary for patients to be placed by their general practitioners (who may still continue to attend them) in the care of a member of the Hospital's Consultant Staff.

The Hospital is outside the National Health Service and is therefore dependent entirely on voluntary aid. Contributors are asked to pay £2 or more, by Banker's Order, which can be obtained from the Appeals Secretary, 6 Buckingham Place, London, S.W.1, 01-828 4454, who will also be pleased to receive all donations.

(Application for admission should be made to the MATRON through the patient's doctor)
